JAMES B. JOHNSON, JR.
DIRECTOR

TO: The Honorable David M. Beasley, Governor of South Carolina, to The Honorable Members of The General Assembly, and the citizens of South Carolina

An annual report from this agency is no longer required by the General Assembly. However, board members and staff of the State Library continue to believe these reports serve a valuable purpose in the chronicle of events, evaluation of programs and planning for the future. It is with pleasure that this summary of the 1996-97 activities of the State Library is submitted.

During the past year the State Library has made tremendous strides toward ensuring that South Carolinians have access to the most recent information through the latest technology. With the cooperation of the Office of Information Resources of the Budget and Control Board, the State Library has worked diligently with public libraries to provide them with access to the Internet. The State Library staff continues to offer online training to public library staff and state employees. Space in the State Library building has been developed into a training room for this purpose.

In cooperation with the state's library community, the State Library planned a statewide online database access project. This service should be available by January 1998 to all public libraries and all academic libraries in South Carolina.

The Department of the Blind and Handicapped Services of the State Library is housed in renovated space at the State Museum. Planning is underway for this department and other State Library functions to occupy the Archives and History Building when its occupants move in 1998. This new location which is across the street from the State Library will be more convenient and provide space for the expansion of other services.

All of these new ventures add to the continued daily excellent service for government and libraries of South Carolina. As you review the report, I hope you will give us your questions and suggestions about our work in Columbia and throughout the state.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret J. Bundy

I. GOVERNANCE/MISSION STATEMENT

Statutory authority for the South Carolina State Library is provided by Title 60, Chapter 1 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina. Originally authorized in 1929 and known as the State Library Board, the public library extension agency was first funded in 1943. It was redesignated the South Carolina State Library with a broad range of responsibilities by Act 464 of 1969. The legislation was recodified and new functions were authorized by Act 178 of 1985.

The South Carolina State Library is an independent state agency governed by a board of seven members appointed by the Governor, with one member from each Congressional District and one from the state at large. Members serve five-year terms and may be reappointed. The Director, who is responsible for the operation of the agency, is appointed by and is responsible to the State Library Board.

The South Carolina State Library's mission is to improve library services throughout the state and to ensure all citizens access to libraries and information resources adequate to meet their needs. The State Library supports libraries in meeting the informational, educational, cultural, and recreational needs of the people of South Carolina.

To accomplish this mission the South Carolina State Library has identified five strategic issues to meet the needs of the people of South Carolina:

- Identify, organize, develop, maintain, and make accessible informational resources and services to meet the needs of the people of South Carolina.
- Provide statewide programs to support improved local library services.
- Serve as the advocate for libraries in South Carolina.
- Encourage cooperation among libraries of all types.
- Continuously improve State Library operations and services.

II. HISTORY

At the urging of citizens interested in quality county-wide library service, the General Assembly passed legislation in 1929 establishing the State Public Library Association and a State Library Board composed of five citizens. In the depths of the Great Depression, no funds were appropriated for the library extension agency, but grants from the South Carolina Library Association and the Rosenwald Foundation enabled the State Library Board to employ a field agent from 1929 to 1932 to assist communities interested in the development of public library service.

The first statewide library program was carried out under the Works Project Administration from 1935 to 1943. The WPA's major objective was to provide each county of the state some measure of area-wide public library service. The WPA library program helped establish library service in some areas and enhanced existing libraries' operations in others. The WPA program made possible the establishment of bookmobile service in twenty-three counties formerly without rural library service. At its demise in 1943, the WPA had been successful in creating public library service in some form in all counties.

The State Library Board received its first appropriation of $3,000 in 1943 and inherited the assets of the WPA. The State Library Board initiated its program with emphasis on State Aid to public libraries and a goal of statewide public library service. County or regional libraries were established in all forty-six counties. The pattern of unified library systems, each legally established and governed by a single library board, made possible a good level of service by eliminating expensive duplication and overhead and by sharing resources and personnel.

When the federal Library Services Act was passed in 1956, the State Library Board, by executive order of the Governor, was charged with administering and implementing within the state the library programs authorized in the Act. Through this Act, the agency's functions were expanded to include service to the blind and physically handicapped, development of library service in state institutions, and interlibrary cooperation.

In 1969, as the result of action by the General Assembly, the State Library Board was redesignated as the South Carolina State Library and assumed responsibility for public library development, library service for state institutions, service for the blind and physically handicapped, and library service to state government agencies. In 1985, an act was passed providing for the recodification of the State Library's legislation. The new legislation reauthorized all functions of the State Library and consolidated a variety of authorizations found in state and federal laws and regulations, executive orders and budget provisos.

III. ORGANIZATION/OPERATIONS

A. Organization

The director, who is responsible for the operation of the South Carolina State Library, is appointed by and is responsible to the Board of the State Library. The director is assisted by a deputy director. The work of the library is carried out by six departments. A brief description of each follows.

2. Blind and Handicapped Services. Provides library service to the blind and physically handicapped in cooperation with the Library of Congress, National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. Reading materials are provided in special formats (recorded, large print, and braille). The service is free, as is the loan of equipment necessary to listen to the recorded materials.

III. (cont'd)

III. D. Highlights

These past twelve months have seen many changes which will impact on library service in South Carolina for years to come.

Access to the Internet is virtually a requirement for libraries to adequately serve their customers. The State Library has been working with the Budget and Control Board, Office of Information Resources (OIR), on a project to extend Internet access to all public library sites in South Carolina. State Library staff members have devoted many hours to this project. This work has involved making site visits to libraries in order to provide OIR with the needed information to order telecommunications lines. The State Library also made available federal funds for libraries to purchase the necessary hardware to make the connections.

This year is one of transition in the use of federal library funds in South Carolina. After forty years of the Library Services and Construction Act-LSCA (and its predecessors), Congress completely rewrote and redirected federal library funding. The new legislation is called the Library Services and Technology Act-LSTA. New emphases will be on making information available electronically and connecting libraries using new information technologies. During the year, the State Library administered the final year of LSCA and began planning for using LSTA.

A decision was made after discussions with librarians throughout the state that significant LSTA dollars should be devoted to online database access. The State Library led an effort to develop such a project. It is estimated that this system will be operational by the end of calendar year 1997.

The State Library has taken a proactive role in providing training for public library staffs and state agency researchers in utilizing the Internet. The State Library sees its role in the area of training expanding in future years.

The agency is partnering with a number of other agencies to improve library services statewide. The South Carolina State Library Foundation targeted five counties for special assistance with summer reading activities. Additional counties will be identified for Summer 1997. The State Library is playing an active role in the work of Governor Beasley's Information Resource Council.

None of these accomplishments could have been made without the support of a strong, dedicated staff. The State Library staff consistently goes the extra mile in providing quality informational services to its constituents. They are well respected by all they serve.

V. LIBRARY MATERIALS

To meet the information needs of both state government and the citizens of South Carolina, the State Library maintains a collection of non-fiction publications on a wide range of topics, such as history, art, applied technology, political science, and the social sciences. The collection also includes audiovisual materials and state and federal documents. The acquisition and organization of library materials is handled by staff of the Technical Services Department. Specific titles which are requested by libraries and by state employees are monitored and often serve as recommendations for purchase. By acquiring, housing, and offering these information materials in one central location, the library attempts to eliminate the need for state agencies to maintain expensive, individual collections. The library's collection also serves to supplement the collections of local public and other libraries which often lack sufficient funds to purchase extensive research materials.

A. Statistical Summary. The book collection is chiefly a one-copy, non-fiction collection, except for South Carolina titles. It includes periodicals and newspapers in both paper and microfilm, and services such as Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC) microfiche. Separate collections include federal and state documents and audiovisual materials. Principal additions during the year are as follows:

All materials are cataloged according to national library cataloging standards. In order to better serve users, the staff acquires and processes additions to the collections efficiently. The Technical Services staff enters the data into the State Library's automated library system and maintains the database.

As a member of Southeastern Library Network, a computerized network of libraries affiliated with the national network, OCLC, Inc., it is possible to add the State Library's holdings to the international network database, thereby enabling greater use through interlibrary loan.

B. Special Collections.

The library maintains a number of special collections which focus on specific topics to support the information needs of South Carolina's citizens. These include:

1. Audiovisual Collection - A collection of materials in videotape, audiocassette, 16mm film, or slide/tape which focus on specific topics to assist the library's customers. Audiovisual materials to support programs for children in public libraries and to provide information and training in the fields of early childhood education are maintained. Training videos to help state employees improve their job and management skills are purchased and circulated to a wide variety of state agencies. Audiovisual materials which train library staff and librarians are purchased to improve the skills of staff that work in libraries.

2. Blind and Physically Handicapped Collection - The collection of materials at the Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped numbered 315,370. Volunteer narrators using the custom-designed recording booth and equipment have supplemented the new titles supplied by NLS in addition to the acquisition of volunteer recorded titles from other libraries.

V. B. (cont'd)

3. ERIC (Educational Resources Information Center) - An extensive collection of research publications on educational topics in microfiche format. The library subscribes to the ERIC indexes in CD-ROM and paper to assist library users in locating research reports on topics relating to education and children.

4. Government Publications. As a federal documents depository library since 1970, the State Library receives publications in print, microfiche and electronic formats. As the official state documents depository, the State Library has the world's largest collection of South Carolina state government publications.

5. Grants Research Collection - Includes directories and other guides to assist nonprofit organizations, government agencies, and citizens in locating grants. The State Library serves as an official cooperating collection of the Foundation Center and compiles and publishes the South Carolina Foundation Directory.

6. South Carolina Collection - Includes published materials dealing with South Carolina subjects. Multiple copies of South Carolina titles are usually purchased to ensure that one copy remains in the library for long-term, historical purposes.

7. South Carolina Fiction Cooperative - Fiction titles, identified as the "last copy" in a particular library's collection, are cataloged and maintained as part of the State Library's collection to ensure that citizens have access to older novels.

VI. LIBRARY DEVELOPMENT

The State Library provides services to assist with the development and improvement of public library services and state institutional library services throughout the state.

A. Consultant Services. State Library staff provides consultant assistance to library directors, boards of trustees, library staffs, library organizations, and state agencies and institutions. Staff serves as liaison between the State Library and thirty-nine county and regional library systems serving all forty-six counties and the thirty-three libraries maintained by seven state agencies. A combination of on-site visits, telephone contacts, and correspondence as well as workshops, small interest group meetings, and information exchanges are used in assisting libraries in identifying their needs and developing strategies to meet these needs.

During FY 97 State Library staff:

- made 2,727 consultations (telephone and personal) with local public library staff
- made 134 field trips to public and state institutional libraries;
- attended 42 public library board meetings;
- administered $4,883,969 in State Aid to County Libraries;
- supervised federal Library Services and Construction Act projects providing approximately $1,546,752 in grants-in-aid to public libraries and $43,995 to state institutional libraries;
- monitored public library budgets totalling almost $44 million in local funds;
- provided construction assistance for 18 library facilities in 16 counties;
- published South Carolina Public Libraries Annual Statistical Summary;
- certified 55 professional and pre-professional public librarians; and
- represented the State Library at local, state, and national conferences, conventions, workshops, professional association meetings, building dedications, and other functions.

B. Grant Administration

1. State Aid to County Libraries. The program of State Aid to county libraries has been funded continuously since 1943. For FY97, the General Assembly appropriated $1.35 per capita with a minimum of $15,000 per county for a total of $4,710,077 to the State Library for distribution to the county libraries. However, State support of county libraries as a percentage of total county library support has steadily declined for more than a decade making it harder for county libraries to meet the informational needs of their citizens. The regulations under which the funds are administered require that participating libraries be legally established, provide county-wide service, maintain levels of county funding, and meet certain standards of service. Qualifying libraries may use State Aid funds to supplement staff salaries, to purchase books and audio visual materials, to purchase or lease equipment and computer hardware and software, and to operate and maintain bookmobiles. State Aid's matching and maintenance of effort requirements have encouraged county governments to increase local support for libraries.

VI.B. (cont'd)

2. Federal Aid to South Carolina Libraries. The Library Services and Construction Act (LSCA) provides federal aid for the improvement and expansion of library services in three major areas:

LSCA Title I -- public library services;
LSCA Title II -- public library construction; and
LSCA Title III -- interlibrary cooperation and resource sharing.

Detailed accounts of LSCA activities are contained in the State Library's Annual Program Library Services and Construction Act, 1996-97 and in The South Carolina Program for Library Development, 1996-1999.

a. LSCA Title I -- Public Library Services
This title supports improved service to public libraries, institutional libraries and special segments of the population with emphasis on reaching the unserved or inadequately served.

The Title I program for FY97 emphasis was placed on expanding citizen access to information through staff development and training, acquisition of materials, use of technology, and development of services to special populations (Children and Young Adults, the Elderly, the Disadvantaged, the Illiterate, and the Institutionalized). During the year public libraries were able to take advantage of an opportunity to provide Internet access for the public.

Title I Projects:

(1) Continuing Education (CE)
The State Library administers the career education project which provides continuing education opportunities through workshops and training grants for public and institutional library personnel and for public library trustees. The annual CE plan was developed in consultation with the state's public library directors, the State Library Staff, the University of South Carolina College of Library and Information Science, and the South Carolina Library Association. CE statistics for FY97:

19 State Library sponsored workshops
526 Participants
38 County and Regional Libraries sent one or more staff members to workshops
7 Training grants were awarded to 7 public libraries. Total $3,400.

(2) Services to Special Populations
Basic library service needs -- information, education, and recreation -- are the same for all groups, but the methods of delivering these services must be tailored to meet the needs of each group.

VI.B. 2. (cont'd)

- Children and Young Adults
  Services to Children and Young Adults were a top priority in the FY97 plan because of the need in South Carolina to address children's school readiness and achievement in our effort to reach the National Education Goals. Grants were awarded mostly for projects focusing on reading readiness and projects aimed at improving children's access to information and ability to access information through the use of technology. In FY97, 6 grants were awarded to 6 libraries. Total: $102,058.

- The Elderly
  Senior Citizens represent almost 29% of the total population and offer new challenges for the delivery of library services. No grants were awarded to libraries to develop and promote innovative library programs for the elderly.

- The Disadvantaged
  County and Regional Libraries were eligible to apply for grants to plan, develop, or expand programs of service for the disadvantaged. The grant awarded in FY 96 was completed in FY 97.

- The Institutionalized
  Libraries in state-supported residential institutions continue to provide useful resources and programming to their clientele. The State Library assisted in the development and improvement of libraries for residents in state-supported institutions. Total $35,995.

- Public Library Automation and Technology
  Public libraries are expanding access to library services through the use of technology. In FY97, 40 grants were awarded to 40 libraries. Total $336,759.

- Service to the Inadequately Served
  These grants are intended for the improvement of public library service to areas where library service is inadequate to meet the needs of the public. Grants were awarded for the improvement of information resources, the purchase of bookmobiles to improve delivery of library services to remote areas, for special programs serving adults as well as children, and for staffing for the delivery of library services. In FY97, 29 grants were awarded. Total $320,808.

- Major Urban Resource Library
  The Richland County Public Library became eligible for a Major Urban Resource Library grant and was awarded $14,892 to provide electronic access to historic photographs of the Midlands area of South Carolina.

b. LSCA Title II -- Public Library Construction
This title provides funds for construction projects which contribute to improved services in the participating county library systems. Relatively small federal construction grants have continued to serve as a strong incentive for local funding initiatives. During FY97, the following public libraries either received or were in the process of applying for LSCA Title II grants:

Cherokee County Library, Headquarters expansion (application nearing completion)
Chester County Library, Richburg Branch (under construction)
Chesterfield County Library, Cheraw Branch (under construction)
Dorchester County Library, Headquarters expansion (construction completed)
Kershaw County Library, Elgin Branch (application nearing completion)
Lancaster County Library, Kershaw Branch (construction completed)
Pickens County Library, Central-Clemson Regional Branch (construction completed)
Williamsburg County Library, Headquarters and Hemingway Branch (application nearing completion)

In FY97, Title II funds expended totalled $494,370 ($437,500 to county libraries and $56,870 for State Library's computer training room).

Though no Federal grant funds were involved, advise, guidance, and assistance was also provided for following counties with needs assessment, minimum space requirements, written building programs and their review, review of floor plans, and capital fundraising plans:

McCormick (HQ)
Sumter (HQ)
Florence (Lake City Branch)
ABBE (Johnston Branch)
Colleton (HQ)
Orangeburg (branch needs assessment and facilities planning)
York (Fort Mill Branch)

VI.B.2 (cont'd)

Worked closely with following State executive or legislative agenceis on plans for small libraries:

S.C. Department of Transportation
SC Legislative Council.

c. LSCA Title III – Interlibrary Cooperation and Resource Sharing
Programs funded under Title III support the activities of the South Carolina Library Network administered by the State Library. A variety of projects have resulted in improved communications, bibliographic access, interlibrary loan, consultant services, preservation of library materials, and study and planning. FY97 activities are detailed in the South Carolina Library Network Section of this report. In FY97, Title III funds expended totalled $240,515.

VII. SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARY NETWORK

The South Carolina Library Network (SCLN), coordinated by the South Carolina State Library, supports the efforts of local libraries to meet the information needs of all South Carolinians through the sharing of library resources. The 172 present SCLN member libraries by type are:

Public libraries 54	Technical College libraries 16
Institutional libraries 4	School libraries 23
Academic libraries 37	Special libraries 38

Libraries participating in the South Carolina Library Network have access to: the LION (Library Information On-line) automated catalog of the South Carolina State Library; an electronic mail component for the transmission of interlibrary loan requests; EBBS, an electronic bulletin board service reporting on current library activity in the state; the FEDCAT (Federal Document Catalog) information database which can be used to identify United States documents issued by the Government Printing Office since 1976; and the South Carolina On-line Library Directory, containing entries for more than 400 South Carolina libraries.

For the purposes of obtaining information and materials not available locally, SCLN member libraries have always used their computers to dial into the State Library automated system. Through its membership in MetroNet, the state government telecommunications network coordinated by the Budget and Control Board, the State Library offers access to its resources through the Internet as well.

Network Services conducted 25 SCLN training and technical support sessions during 1996-97. Network staff also participated in a variety of educational activities designed to support and improve reference service across the state:

--For public libraries serving the largest metropolitan areas in the state, the State Library organized a seventh annual Reference Exchange in August 1996. This meeting brought together reference librarians from Charleston, Greenville, Richland and Spartanburg County Libraries for a discussion of mutual concerns in the areas of public service and electronic reference.

--A three day course, "Public Library Service: Principles and Practice", was held in October 1996 to give public library staff a review of basic library activities. Instructors were State Library consultants who work with all aspects of public library operations.

--In January 1997, a System Managers Exchange brought together library automation system managers from SC public libraries to discuss planning for technology development other issues of common interest.

Network Services provided major support for an Internet/Telecommunications Project intended to strengthen the resources of South Carolina public libraries through public access to the Internet. The State Library cooperated with the Office of Information Resources (OIR) to provide Internet access in these libraries to South Carolina students as an extension of provisions of a statewide K-12 Internet initiative. Network Services staff made site visits to the majority of public library systems by the end of the fiscal year to discuss the project and determine technological requirements. The State Library made use of federal grant funds to assist in the purchase of essential telecommunications equipment by libraries.

State Library Network staff acted as liaison with other groups concerned with cooperative activities: the MetroNet/StateNet Security Users Group; the Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET) Network Forum; South Carolina SOLINET Users Group; Palmetto Archives, Libraries, and Museums Council on Preservation; and the State Historical Records Advisory Board.

VIII. PUBLIC INFORMATION SERVICES

The State Library's public information service is responsible for a statewide program of publicity and public relations designed to publicize South Carolina libraries and to make the general public aware of library services. Activities include news releases, exhibits, special programs, and publications. The State Library's public relations activities are planned and coordinated by the director of public information and the public relations committee.

Major activities include:

- News for SC Libraries - a newsletter distributed six times a year to all libraries in South Carolina and to library trustees.

- News About Library Services for the Blind and Physically Handicapped - newsletter distributed quarterly to all registered users of the service.

- Published two children's booklists, one for infants and toddlers and one for grades four through six. These were distributed to libraries and bookstores.

- Published a brochure on services of the South Carolina State Library.

- Held two public relations librarian exchanges for public relations staff of the public libraries.

- Organized and held Read-In 1997 at the USC Coliseum. Approximately 1,100 children from across the state participated in the event to celebrate reading and kick-off the summer reading program.

- News releases promoting services and special projects such as Children's Book Week were sent periodically to media.

- Began work on a three year marketing campaing "SConnects @ the Library." This program will help libraries promote their Internet connectivity, technology resources and traditional resources of public libraries statewide. Fiscal Year 1997-1998 will be the first official year of the campaign.

- Worked with Friends of South Carolina Libraries on their newsletter.

- Provided consulting services to libraries as needed.

- October 1996: Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped was promoted at the South Carolina State Fair. This service was also promoted at 26 meetings of major professional associations throughout the state in an on-going effort to attract more patrons and educate the general public about talking book services.

IX. VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Volunteers have made a positive impact on the South Carolina State Library and particularly the Department for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (DBPH) where 52 volunteers contributed 2,372 hours of service. Members of boards, committees and advisory councils represent user groups and aid in the development of policies and services.

Under the guidance of the Volunteer Coordinator, narrators recorded books and magazines about South Carolina. Narrators skillfully recorded issues of "South Carolina Wildlife" and "Sandlapper" magazines, the department's newsletter and the Disability Action Center's newsletter. Four books were recorded and added to the South Carolina Collection: "Dori Sanders' Country Cooking," "The Mystery of the Pirate's Treasure", "The Winter of Our Discount Tent", and "The DSS Medicaid Handbook."

The State Library hosted a breakfast for the Telephone Pioneers to recognize their outstnding service and commitment to the talking book program. At that time, they received the Commendation of Service Award from the National Library Service (NLS) of the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

During the past year, the Pioneer repair group received training on the new NLS equipment repair standards. They repaired 662 cassette machines and record players. Because of their work and a large inventory of working cassette machines, South Carolina was able to transfer a portion of our inventory to other states that were in need of equipment.

Other individuals were trained as book inspectors, receptionists, and clerical assistants. Book inspection volunteers have helped DBPH maintain its goal of 100% book inspection. Receptionists answered the telephone, assisted visitors, and prepared bulk mailings for the Summer Reading program, prepared newsletters and overdue book notices for mailing and weeded application files to remove inactive patron records. Volunteers from the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) also provided some much needed assistance with many of these 4 projects. Public relations efforts received a boost from volunteers who labeled thousands of promotional brochures and staffed exhibit booths at two events that reached thousands of adults age 55 and over.

During FY 97, 70 individuals contributed 2,448 hours of service as shown below:

State Library

	Profile of Members	Hours of Service
Library Board	7	64

Based on formulas from the Governor's Office, the service value of DBPH volunteers is $32,700 with the total value of volunteers to the State Library being more than $32,724.
